

THE VISUAL GUIDE OF FREEDOM OR EQUALITY

FLÁVIO GOMES DA SILVA LISBOA, Ph. D.

Centuries ago, the world of Hidros was invaded by aliens who enslaved its inhabitants. The enslavement lasted until the aliens' enemies appeared and liberated the planet's inhabitants, expelling the invaders. Now, on a planet that rejects the use of electricity, a survivor of these invaders' experiments, Atsu Col, intends to establish complete and lasting peace by imposing a single way of thinking. After conquering the devastated kingdom of Morféa, forcing its inhabitants to relinquish their freedom in exchange for equality, Atsu Col sets his sights on the rest of the continent of Ampulium. In the south, the Republic of Gandhinium seeks out the only being who knows how to defeat Atsu Col: Pandino, the Emperor. Thus begins Sergeant Jord's journey in search of this reclusive and unsympathetic being, for whom Atsu Col harbors a deep desire for revenge.
